A Decade of Art, A World of Voices
MayinArt at Affordable Art Fair Singapore

26–29 November 2026

MayinArt is a Singapore-based online art gallery established in 2016 with a commitment to democratising access to original art. Over the past decade, the gallery has created a platform for emerging and established artists from India, Indonesia, Singapore, and beyond, connecting distinctive artistic voices with collectors across borders.

As MayinArt celebrates its tenth anniversary, this presentation at Affordable Art Fair Singapore 2026 brings together a carefully selected group of nine artists. The selection reflects the diversity of contemporary artistic expression represented by the gallery—from abstraction and optical explorations to pop-influenced imagery, figurative narratives, textured surfaces, and contemplations of nature, identity, culture, and human experience.

Among the artists presented are established and recognised voices alongside artists whose practices continue to evolve and reach new audiences. Their works differ in language, material, and perspective, yet share a common quality: a distinctive visual identity shaped by personal experience and an individual way of seeing the world.

For this fair, MayinArt invites visitors to look beyond the immediate impact of an image and spend time with the details, textures, gestures, and stories within each work. Some works speak through colour and movement; others through silence, symbolism, material, or repetition. Together, they form a collection intended not only to be viewed, but to be discovered.

We welcome you to explore the selection and, perhaps, to find a work that resonates with your own space, perspective, and way of seeing.

ABHIJIT PAUL

India | b. 1984

Abhijit Paul is an Indian Pop Art artist from Kolkata whose vibrant works capture the city's evolving identity, urban memory, and cultural contrasts.

Drawing from Kolkata's rich history and his family's artistic heritage, he blends contemporary imagery with Indian miniature and Thangka traditions.

His paintings explore identity, power, desire, and human connection, reflecting the tension between tradition and modern life.

AT SITOMPUL

Indonesia | b. 1977

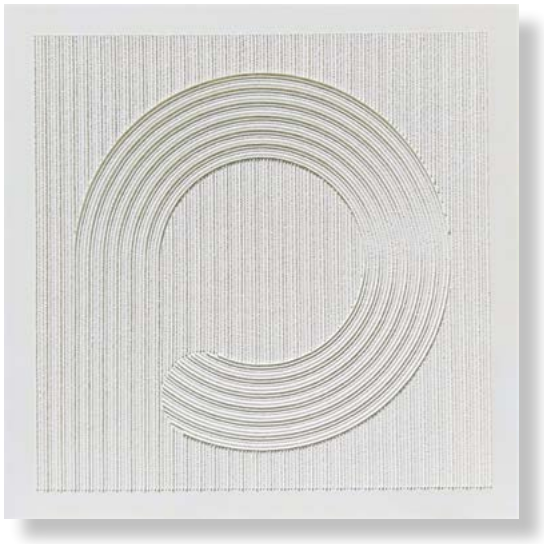

AT Sitompul is an Indonesian Optical Art. His works explore the interplay of illusion, space, perception, and movement through rhythmic lines and geometric patterns.

Guided by the concept of “giving space to illusion,” he transforms static forms into dynamic visual experiences that challenge how viewers perceive reality.

A three-time finalist of the UOB Painting of the Year, Sitompul works across painting and printmaking.
